

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

18th February 2021

Statement

GAM is committed to ensuring that their supply chains are free of any slavery and/or human trafficking and will not knowingly support or do business with any supplier who is involved in such activities.

GAM expects its employees, contractors and suppliers to prevent acts of modern slavery and human trafficking from occurring within their businesses and supply chains.

GAM has corporate policies in place under which employees are encouraged to report concerns of non-compliance with regulatory rules or statutory obligations to the relevant Compliance or HR department. Any material concerns raised will be escalated to senior management for review and investigation in accordance with the relevant procedures.

GAM is under a UK regulatory obligation to publish a UK Modern Slavery Statement on its website. This statement provides further detail on the processes and procedures described above and can be accessed via this LINK.

Important information

This document is provided for information purposes only and does not contain any personal recommendations for a particular course of action, service or product. Any information, opinions or assessments contained in this document are based on current economic, market and regulatory conditions and are subject to change without notice. No liability shall be accepted for the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this document, or for any action taken in reliance thereon.